On October 1st, 2014, a delegation from the Hong Kong University of Science and Technology (HKUST) visited the Graduate School of Economics and Business Administration, Hokkaido University. The HKUST delegation was composed by Mr. Vincent K.C. Cheung, Professor Ting-Chuen Pong, Professor Yasutora Watanabe and Ms. Kennis Chan. They were welcomed by Dean Hiroshi Yoshimi, Vice-Dean Hajime Kubota, Professor Tetsuhiko Takai and three members of the International Affairs Committee. As the HKUST is also known for its business school, we have discussed on various possibilities of international exchange after the presentations of each university.
