

Application Guidelines for Research Students

(Self-supported International Students)

1. Definition of Research Student

A research student is a person who conducts research on a particular specialized topic in this graduate school.

Research students are not fully matriculated students and do not receive academic credits or official grades.

2. Application Qualifications

- (1) Individuals who hold a master's degree
- (2) Individuals who are recognized by this graduate school as possessing the equivalent or greater academic skill as that of a person who has a master's degree

3. Enrollment and Research Periods

- (1) Enrollments are in April and October.
- (2) The research period is one year. However, those who want to continue their studies beyond one year may request an extension from the dean of the graduate school.

4. Deadline of Informal Approval and Application Period

(1) Deadline of Informal Approval

Individuals who want to apply to be research students in this graduate school are required to obtain the informal approval of their (prospective) academic advisors before applying.

Apr. 2022 enrollment: From Oct. 18(Mon.) to Oct. 29 (Fri.), 2021

Oct. 2022 enrollment: From Apr. 25(Mon.) to May 6 (Fri.), 2022

(2) Online application registration:
